During Día de los Muertos, our departed come back to celebrate with us. The boundaries between the spirit world and physical world dissolve. We symbolized this crossover by blurring the lines between kitchen & bar. Our culinary experts have crafted dishes incorporating elements from the bar, while our talented mixologists created drinks infused with elements from the kitchen.

Get ready to savor unique gastronomic delights that symbolize the unity of life and death, immersing yourself in the true essence of Día de los Muertos.
